

The Madness

Buckcherry

I got 2 sides of me
You can bet they're enemies
You got the good side
Then ya got the Madness
Violent I'm ready to go
Outta step my blood is cold
It's how it goes
When you're in the grips of Madness Oh And I'm filled with shame
Oh lean mean and green
Oh but I still believe
Oh When your thoughts are not your own
And you feel like you have lost control
It's not a test
You're dealing with the Madness
Don't be scared by what you find
It's guaranteed to blow your mind
I must confess
I really like the Madness I lost my sanity
You can rest when they bury me
From the west side
Stayin' alive with the Madness
Take a look into my eyes
And see a messed up state of mind
My crime is losing time
To the Madness Oh And I'm filled with shame
Oh lean mean and green
Oh but I still believe
Oh When your thoughts are not your own
And you feel like you have lost control
It's not a test
You're dealing with the Madness
Don't be scared by what you find
It's guaranteed to blow your mind
I must confess
I really like the Madness Break it down
Don't steal my soul
I got a cold heart
Not a broken heart of stone
Just a full-time hard line

Headed straight for the Madness
Can't you see I've had it?Guitar soloOh And I'm filled with shame
Oh lean mean and green
Oh but I still believe
OhWhen your thoughts are not your own
And you feel like you have lost control
It's not a test
You're dealing with the Madness
Don't be scared by what you find
It's guaranteed to blow your mind
I must confess
I really like the MadnessOh And I'm filled with shame
Oh lean mean and green
Oh but I still believe
Oh
