

Luna

Alu

There is a lady who only I can see.
Through the sky she wanders.
In the night she sets me free.

She tells me secrets and wishes on a star.
Every night she saves me.
She's not afraid of who we are.

And we fly into the hollows.
Set us free. Set us free. Set us free.
As she lights the way, I follow.
I can see. I can see. I can see.

There is a lady who wipes away my tears.
But in the dawn she leaves me
on my own to face my fears.
