

One Slowdance (Demo Version)

Rufio

You're standing there alone and so am I.
But I want you here by my side.
Your smile at me is everything.
The staring game,
that song of love.I look you in the eyes,
I try to read you thoughts.
I ask you to go with me,
to a far off place.I look you in the eyes,
I try to read you thoughts.
I ask you to go with me,to a far off place.
You and me dancing the night away,
you can feel my heart beating so hard.
We look eye to eye and I'm swept away.
On a moonlit walk on the beach,
watching the sunrise for the first time.
I'm in a trance from that one slowdance.You're standing there alone and so am I.
But I want you here by my side.
that song of love.
Your smile at me is everything.I look you in the eyes,
The staring game,
I try to read you thoughts.
I ask you to go with me,
to a far off place.
I try to read you thoughts.
I look you in the eyes,to a far off place.I ask you to go with me,
You and me dancing the night away,
you can feel my heart beating so hard.
On a moonlit walk on the beach,
We look eye to eye and I'm swept away.
I'm in a trance from that one slowdance.
watching the sunrise for the first time.We don't have to laugh at all,
We don't have to talk,
I just want you here with me,We don't have to laugh at all,
We don't have to talk,
I just want to be,
You and me.You and me dancing the night away,
you can feel my heart beating so hard.
We look eye to eye and I'm swept away.
On a moonlit walk on the beach,

watching the sunrise for the first time.
I'm in a trance from that one slowdance
