

Hurricane Heart

Marc Broussard

You tell me I'm unfaithful
If that's the way you feel
This is gonna be painful
'Cause it's about to get real

You're telling me to be honest
How I wish I could
'Cause all I ever wanted was
Just to be understood

I'm rolling stone with a loaded gun
Baby, I was born to run

I didn't mean to break your heart this reckless
Was a long shot love we had
To begin with

I wish it didn't go down like this
My hurricane heart
You're picking up the pieces

I'm tired of talking it over
I've said what I needed to say
You point your finger at the sinner
I never said I was a saint

Fell in love with the prodigal son
Rapid man, yes I am

I didn't mean to break your heart
Just reckless
Was a long shot love we had
To begin with

I wish it didn't go down like this
My hurricane heart
You're picking up the pieces

I wish it didn't go down like this

I didn't mean to break your heart
This reckless

Was a long shot love we had
To begin with

I wish it didn't go down like this
My hurricane heart
You're picking up the pieces
