Margo's Waltz

Lloyd Cole

She said don't worry baby
I'll do my own cryin', I'm a big girl now
Now I'm gonna be okay
Yes, I'll find a new way of living, you know I willAnd you lie there without sleepin'
And you stare at your wall
And you realize you're not weepin'
You don't need her anymoreYou say don't hate me baby, it won't hurt you if you do
You got no reason not to, she'll kiss you on the head
Says there's no easy road for leaving
If it hurts you tooYou lie there without sleepin'
And you stare at your wall
You realize you're not weepin'
You don't need her anymoreYou walk by the old place looks like just any other place
Yeah, that's what you say, you say I'll be okay
Yes I'll find a new way of living
Sure I willYou lie there without sleepin'
And you stare at your wall
You realize you're not weepin'
You don't need her anymoreAnd you lie there without sleepin'
And you stare at your wall
And you realize you're not weepin'
You don't need her anymoreYou guess that's over
