

A Lesson Never Learned

Asking Alexandria

Please, you have to help me
This is not my true face
If you could see my soul,
As i have seen my soul
I could show it to you
It's rotten
It's poison
Help me please Please, give me a fucking excuse
I beg for just one reason to give you regret
Regret Are you with me or are you on your own?
It's time to choose your side,
So choose your side Are you with me or are you on your own?
It's time to choose your side,
So choose your fucking side Could be the end of the world
I'd still be laid here on my own, wasting my life away Hear me now
Get off your knees
Nothing changes when you pray
I'm the closest thing to a god you'll ever know
Get of your knees Open your eyes
I'll regret, never again
And i stand above you
[x2] And i can't feel this pain anymore
And i can't carry on this way
I'm hiding behind false eyes Could be the end of the world
I'd still be laid here on my own wasting my life away Over and over [x2] Fuckin' out.
Fuck
