

Satisfy Me

Anderson East

I've sipped the finest brandy
I've smelled the sweetest perfume
I kissed the softest lips
But even they wouldn't do
I drove the Autobahn, in a Coupe De Ville
Climbed Kilimanjaro and it was just a hill
Now it's gonna take more, more, more
To satisfy me
To satisfy me
Now, listen here baby
You're just as fine as they come
But you're a selfish little lover
A hot and cold hit and run
Oh got a Phd in TLC
And there's so many fish in the sea
And it's gonna take more, more, more
To satisfy me
Oh, to satisfy me
Satisfy me
And it's gonna take more, more, more
Gonna take more, more, more
It's gonna take more
Goin' take more
Goin' take more
To satisfy me
Oh, to satisfy me
Satisfy me
Oh, to satisfy me
Oh, satisfy
