

Too Young to Care

Tim Hicks

Summer, ninety nine
Driving round in my beat up ride
One-track minds, still home-made wine
We go hiding in our favorite spot
Praying that we would get caught
Smile on your face, always happy this way
You're tying me up in knots We're spending our nights in the backs of our cars
Finding plenty of trouble underneath them stars
Dreaming out loud in the middle of nowhere
Playing our lives like it was truth or dare
Under the moon, too young to care
Senior year we ran this town
Broke the rules if we weren't allowed
Sipped that shine, stayed out all night
Had each other's backs when it all went down We're getting in fights, wasting our cars
Finding plenty of trouble underneath them stars
Dreaming out loud in the middle of nowhere
Playing our lives like it was truth or dare
Under the moon, too young to care
Too young to care No regrets bout where I am
Still love thinking bout way back when We're spending our nights in the backs of our cars
Finding plenty of trouble underneath them stars
Dreaming out loud in the middle of nowhere
Playing our lives like it was truth or dare
We're getting in fights, wasting our cars
Finding plenty of trouble underneath them stars
Dreaming out loud in the middle of nowhere
Playing our lives like it was truth or dare
Under the moon, too young to care
Too young to care
