Wish You Were Here

Hey Monday

Here's my heart in a postcard, darling
Just one step from the edge
Sleep alone and it's so hard, darling
You're next to me in my head
But it's too late, too late to call
Are you out there?
Too late, too much to say
Wish you were here, wish you well
If you'd only share this hell
But you leave and stains are left on me
I wish you, I wish you were here
I wish you, I wish you were here
Here's my Hollywood ending calling
Every day fades to black
Sick and tired of pretending, darling
That you'll ever come back
But it's too late, too late to call
Are you out there?
Too late, too much to say
Wish you were here, wish you well
If you'd only share this hell
But you leave and stains are left on me
I wish you, I wish you were here
I wish you, I wish you were here
Tell me something
Talk me down, down again
I'm broken, I'm frozen out
Wish you were here, wish you well
If you'd only share this hell
But you leave and stains are left on me
Wish you were here, wish you well
If you'd only share this hell
But you leave, and stains are left on me
I wish you, I wish you were here
I wish you, I wish you were here
