

Boomerang (ft. Tay Beckham) [That's Nice Remix]

Le Youth

Boomerang boomerang Stacking photographs is where we're at
'Cause you didn't want to try
Now you're calling out someone who's in the picture
You're too late to change my mind And now if you're blackening
I'm underneath
It's no proof for you and me
I thought you'd say we'll be okay
And if we take a step to try
My way to find you're in my mind
You've already failed to come
I don't know what you've been up
It's got your name
Don't see an invitation
You ain't gotta change
I don't know what you've been up
'Cause you've let me walk away
Fixing up all my things
I ain't coming back,
Boomerang
Boomerang
Boomerang
Boomerang
I ain't coming back,
I don't know what you've been up
'Cause you've let me walk away
Fixing up all my things
I ain't coming back,
Not a word you say can make me see any difference
You're still the one who broke my heart
Oh, oh
No, not far you couldn't see everything I'm missing
I wanna fix till it falls apart Now you see it black and white,
Imagine me, see it through for you and me
Looks like we're not really okay
So, come and take yourself to try
I'm done wasting with my life
