

Never Love Again (feat. Jussie Smollett)

Empire Cast

So long, sweet words
Don't have no use for you anymore
No one to say them to
So what in the hell would I hold on to them for?
And today's a special day, a celebration
Cause I've finally come to accept this fact
And the fact is that

I'll never love again, I'll never love again
I'll never love again the way that I love you
I'll never love again, I'll never love again
I'll never love again the way that I love you

So long, happiness
We don't know each other anymore
Ooh, and bye bye Sexy Saturday
With your head on my chest
In front of the TV, lying on the floor
Tonight's a special night
Congratulations to me for making sure that you'll never be back
And that's the reason that

I'll never love again, I'll never love again
I'll never love again the way that I love you
I'll never love again, I'll never love again
I'll never love again the way that I love you

Hello, loneliness
Where's your friend, depressed?
I'll be spending a lot of time with the both of you
Goodbye, sunny days, I'll be in the rain
Watching time go by just added to the pain

I'll never love again, I'll never love again
I'll never love again the way that I love you
I'll never love again, I'll never love again
I'll never love again the way that I love you

Baby, said I'll never love again the way that I love you
