Sahara Pt. II

Bear's Den

All my life,
I wasn't honest enough.
And I thought I would never get over you.I'd never get over you.You said that I'd always feel alone,
But it's the life that I chose.
You said I could never be happy with anyone.But I found love
I found love
I found love
I found loveAll my life
I wasn't honest enough
and I thought I would never get over youAll my life I wasn't honest enough
and I thought I would never get over youBut I found love but I found love
but I found love
but I found love
