Birdie Told Me

Bee Gees

Birdie, told me, I must get over you, somehow
And she told me, never to think of you, right now
But it's hopeless to say how can I forget the way, she used to love me
I think about her in my time, know in my mind, it's over
Looks like falling, Heaven is calling my name to me
Funny faces loving the traces, left for me
But it's hopeless to say, how can I forget the way, she used to love me
I think about her in my time, know in my mind, it's over
Birdie told me, I must get over you, somehow
And she told me, never to think of you, right now
But it's hopeless to say, how can I forget the way, she used to love me
I think about her in my time, know in my mind, it's over
Birdie taught me, how to get over you
