Stereotomy

The Alan Parsons Project

Diamond eyes that burn me
And turn me to stone
Crystallize and freeze me
In clear monochrome
Turn me to stone
Do anything you want with me
Turn me to stone
Do anything you want
Stereotomy
We can make it together
Do anything you want with me
Do anything you want
Scarlet minds possess me
And I feel no shame
Silent knives dissect me
And I feel no pain
Stereotomy
We can make it together
Do anything you want with me
Do anything you want
Stereotomy
We can make it forever
Do anything you want with me
Do anything you want
Starlight beams project me
In red, blue and green

Velvet dreams protect me
When I hit the screen
Stereotomy
We can make it together
Do anything you want with me
Do anything you want
Stereotomy
We can make it forever
It's always the same
It's always the same
Stereotomy
We can make it

We can make it
Do anything you want
Turn me to stone
Do anything you want with me
Cover my eyes
There's nothing more they need to see
Turn me to stone
Before there's nothing left of me
Make me a rock
And not what I appear to be
Turn me to stone
Turn me to stone
