Bo Ningen

I don't even see the voice of that day anymore
Now I am dancing into that place
But hey, what tomorrow's sky is gonna be like?
And everything will be connected from there
Forgetting about the memories of somewhere before remembering the other memories
But hey, who's gonna be laughing tomorrow?
I am hearing and forgetting at the same time It goes again and again, Cos I know what is like
It goes again and again, Cos I know what is like
It goes again and again, Cos I know what is like
It goes again and again, Cos I know what is like I was there when I woke up
I was there when I woke up
I was there when I woke up
I was there when I woke up
I think I will see the voice of that place in my head.
