

Still Holding On

Rantings of Eva

i know, used to makin promises you ain't gonna keep and i know you always got a maker when it comes to seein me i know, we been on the outs but we're still the best of friends and i know one day we'll be back in love all over again how do i say we're through

 how do i get over you

 how do i when i'm still holdin on how do i just drive away

 how do i try to erase

 i'm holdin on

 i'm holdin on

 i'm still holdin on

i know, i be trippin now when you come in late and i know all i need from this baby "how was your day? " i know we gotta rebuild everything we tore down and i know it's easy to give up but i need you around i been tryin to let it go but your like my favorite show you're the only one i see me givin love, givin love that's why i'm not givin up, givin up, givin up
