Out Of Love

Hitpoints

As I was searching for some cookies in an empty jar
I realized some days are made to press restart
I wasn't listening you stopped asking
We watched our beauty fade away
Come open sesame if I just had one wish to make
It would be that we'd meet, I'd fall for you and love again
But there's no genie in a bottle, where did we go wrong?
So wrong
Oh, so much gone
Out of love, caught in a trap
No turning back when you are out of love
It's all said and done
And you're still holding on yet you are out of love
Out of love, caught in a trap
No turning back when you are out of love
It's all said and done
And you're still holding on yet you are out of love
Blackmailed emotion for a picture in a pretty frame
We were amazing but our dreams deleted in our face
I couldn't tell you when it started and where we went wrong
So wrong
Oh, so much gone

Out of love, caught in a trap
No turning back when you are out of love
It's all said and done
And you're still holding on yet you are out of love
Out of love, caught in a trap
No turning back when you are out of love
It's all said and done
And you're still holding on yet you are out of love
Lost poetry, so much there but none of us
Just a hologram of something that we shared
Out of love
Out of love, caught in a trap
No turning back when you are out of love
It's all said and done
And you're still holding on yet you are out of love
Out of love, caught in a trap

No turning back when you are out of love
It's all said and done
And you're still holding on yet you are out of love
Oh, so much gone
Oh, so much gone
