

Little Bit of Heaven

Lisa Stansfield

Every little thing I do
Can it be, I do it for you?
Every word I say is true
Anything I do, I do for you'Cos when you hold me in your arms
I feel so safe and warm
I love you trueBaby can't you see, you will always be my little bit of Heaven
Baby can't you see, you will always be my life
Baby can't you see, you were meant to be my little bit of Heaven
So it's you and me and I can't believe my eyesThere's so little I can do
When you put your kisses on me
I just melt into my shoes
And everythin' I feel is due to you'Cos when you hold me in your arms
I feel so safe and warm
I love you trueBaby can't you see, you will always be my little bit of Heaven
Baby can't you see, you will always be my life
Baby can't you see, you were meant to be my little bit of Heaven
So it's you and me and I can't believe my eyesYou take me to another place
Out of myself and into your arms
And you make me feel no other way
Will do, will doBaby can't you see, you will always be my little bit of Heaven
Baby can't you see, you will always be my life
Baby can't you see, you were meant to be my little bit of Heaven
Baby it's you and me and I can't believe my eyesOoh my eyes
Wanna see you baby, baby
Wanna see you baby, baby
Oh yeah
