Crown of Life

Bolt Thrower

Rising from mundane existence
A new world seen through your eyes
To deception give no resistance
Your hopes and dreams are now sanctifiedBlind to the hypocrisy
Goodness is all that you seeAnd your past life is cast aside
In false truths you now confidePledged to a life of divinity
Superior through your own pietyHolier than thou
Alone you wear the crownIn your private [Incomprehensible]
Look to what you have become
Condemned to misery and strife
Alone you wear the crown of lifeThe crown of lifeThe crown of life
