It's A Loving Thing

C.B. Milton

Joe sighed and closed his eyes, Can't think of what to say. It's so clear when he sees her face, But words just slip away. In other days, in other times He'd laugh and walk on by. But that was then and this is now. So happy he could cry.

Chorus: (It's a loving thing) it will change your life. Change it every way (It's a loving thing) you can bet your life, It happens every day.
Hey every day

Two girls in a lonely town, Wonder what's in store. They shared dreams of running around, But one don't run no more. In other days with other boys, She'd laugh and walk on by. But whereas once she never loved, She knows that she will try.

Repeat Chorus (x2)

Call me, I'll be waiting. Can you hear me? I'm facing changes. Call me if you're ready, Im waiting, Im facing changes now.

Ooh yeah, it happens every day. Oh oh (It's a loving thing)

Chorus: (It's a loving thing) it will change your life, Change it every way (It's a loving thing) you can bet your life, It happens every day.

(It's a loving thing) Oh yeah, love oh love. It happens every day. Love oh love
