Inferno (Unleash the Fire)

Symphony X

Welcome to the Anarchy
Enigmatic entity
The grand illusion destitution
Infecting one and all
Forces they're oppressing me
Lords of mediocrity
An iron will shall break the steel
Some will rise and some will fallOh yes, we ride
Through stormy skies
Of fireEvil lies that mesmerize
From the dragon's tongue they slide
A fury lashes from the ashes
Never losing sight
Pounding down the wicked ones
Tyrants now are overcome
A final yell from hounds of Hell
Rising we uniteOh yes we ride
Through stormy skiesThe endless nights
In the moonlight, we together
We curse uncertainty and false desires
We lift the mask
And stand together one and all
And when the flames grow dim,
Look withinUnleash the fire...A time will come when all will see
In the end - its just a game
Time will tell when all these things that have come to pass
Still remainThe endless nights
In the moonlight, we together
We curse uncertainty and false desires
We lift the mask
and stand together one and all
And when the flames grow dim,
Look withinUnleash the Fire...
