Let Me Show You

Travis Garland

You were broken when I found ya
Girl I don't mind picking up what's left of you
Can't even believe I got you here with me
I bet you never had a love like this beforeBring your sexy ass right over here
Let me get a good look at you
Baby tell me how that feel
When I push up all close to you
What you need from me?
I took care of everything, all true
I know whats up, what I would doCome here, let me show you
Come here, let me show you
Come here, let me show you
Got you, that's so true
I know whats up, what I would do
Come here, let me show youIt took me a while to get you here, baby
But now that I don't mind waiting up
I got all my time to me
I'm in yo lap, how could you send me off?
I'll show you love you ain't never quite seen beforeBring your sexy ass right over here
Let me get a good look at you
Baby tell me how that feel
When I push up all close to you
What you need from me?
I took care of everything, all true
I know whats up, what I would doCome here, let me show you
Come here, let me show you
Come here, let me show you
Got you, that's so true
I know whats up, what I would do
Come here, let me show youBaby these days I know it's so harder to leave
Man someone left for, what they really mean?
Baby I'm gon' let my patience do the talking
All the time
Come here, let me show you
Come here, let me show you
Got you, that's so true
I know whats up, what I would doCome here, let me show you
Come here, let me show you
Come here, let me show you

Got you, that's so true
I know whats up, what I would do
Come here, let me show you
Come here, let me show you
Got you, that's so true
I know whats up, what I would do
Come here, let me show you
