Lil Wyte

Chorus x2]

I'm a' blast on a hater and worry bout it later, got heatas in my hand Masked up like Darth Vader I don't wanna rap i let my guns do the talkini don't wanna rap i let my guns do the talkin[verse 1 - lil wyte ] now i don't tote around or even talk to you chumps i eat, sleep, get high and even walk with this pump you cross me wrong one time one times to many i got about a thousand rounds and ill pop off plenty, and i know youngstas in the hood that will pop for penny's so fo a hundred bones you'll wash up on that banks of the sippi.
and they virginity they ain't been takin but they take what shorty life now he on his way upstate thats what i mean when i say we'll worry bout it later he didnt think he just went out and blasted at him a hata. life's too short to not be out here chasin that papa. that's why I'm out here masked up in all black like Darth Vader Chorus x2]
