Beautiful Day

Scott Weiland

Leave me here, I'm okay
Just got back from hell today
Open doors, feeling light
Hours they pass, try to flyLeaving home, Steven's gay
Not much more to contemplate
Nothing's changed, nothing's real
Must have more diet pillsWander, wander, wandering
Have you ever been, ever been?Keeping up with the Joneses, we'll catch them if we can
The promises made with a smile on her face
Keeping up with the Joneses and catching them as we can
I'll believe anything, it's a beautiful dayBeautiful, beautiful, beautiful day
Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful dayEverything out of sync
Who am I? Who is she?
We'll stay home, we're okay
Safe and sound, commiserateSummer school at the astral plain
One more class to levitate
Doing well, feeling fine
Modulate, higher lightWander, wander, wandering
Have you ever been, ever been?Keeping up with the Joneses, we'll catch them if we can
The promises made with a smile on your face
Keeping up with the Joneses and catching them as we can
I'll believe anything, it's a beautiful dayBeautiful, beautiful, beautiful
Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful day
Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful day
Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful day
