Heard It All

Dreezy

[Chorus]: Your love is like an ocean I love the way it flow, but if i cant have you to myself i rather let it go. I swear you got me confused with them other hoes, i aint them other hoes i aint tryna play no role, said you not ready to be with me i heard it all before

[Verse 1]: Look, I love the kid but he so full of it i be thinking bout what we could've been or what we've should've been but he'll ruin it.
He be talking bout what his ex's did & how it mess with him but i aint hearing it.
How you saying you aint ready for commitment? Thats the only thing that we missing. If you with me like you say you with me then a title shouldnt even make a difference. We been at it for a little minute let em know wassup but keep em out our business. I will never have you [?] these n*ggas Im the only one who got yo back, im the only one who put up with you, i cant play a role cause i dont like to act. You hate to see me with another boy but you know you could have me to yoself.
You been hurt before i probably been hurt more but put them memories up on the shelf. Its hard for you to trust me & i aint tryna rush you but if you never gon give me the credit then i might just have to cut you.

[Chorus]: Your love is like an ocean I love the way
rather let it go. I swear you got me

[Verse 2]: The kid love me but he so damn stubborn. He tell the truth when we be under covers but to the public we be undercover. Why you hiding it? You say we rushing, but who timing it? I been your friend & now im tired of it. I wanna be your girl i must admit. I need to know that you aint leaving me so that mean that you gotta be with me. If you dont wanna put a ring on it then dont be mad when you see him with me cause he with me & to tell the truth i like you, but its alot of n*ggas like you. So you can take your time, but its a boy in line i switch em like a cycle..

[Break]: I promise i'll do what it takes to be your girl, to make you stay. You make me feel some type of way so i dont want nobody want nobody else..

[Chorus]: Your love is like an ocean I love the way it flow, but if i cant have you to myself i rather let it go. I swear you got me confused with them other hoes, i aint them other hoes i aint tryna play no role, said you not ready to be with me i heard it all before
