Twisted Minds

Possessed

Twisting my mind, Insane
Ripping out your brain, you're slain
Grieving the sunset, terror
And your last breath is nearer
Revenge
Draining your soul out, bloodies
Awaiting the final sentence
Grasping Your last piece of mind
Slip into madness, our kind
Revenge
Life is Strange, It's one big name
Live or dead, is all the same Hidden secrets, inside my head decaying bodies my blade is red Rotting world so full of clones sickening feeling inside my bones Madness creeps up from behind sanity is drained, my state of mind
Mentally insane, Maladjusted minds
Lunacy within, Evil twisted minds
Cast my wishes from the grave
Below the earth my body enslaved cults of people down in hell skulls are splitting from their spell
Forgotten souls arise at night Rule the world With Unchallenged might
The sun sets into the sea of blood
Chanting satan as they drone
Mentally Insane, Maladjusted minds
Lunacy within, Evil twisted minds
