

The Critical Writing Assignment

Justin Sane

The assignment Said, "With this line tell a story:
The crowds eyes shot up, as the light cut across the sky..."
At the Airport Drive Inn, on a Saturday night
Where some kids go to make-out, and others go to start fights
And waste away their summer nightsThe assignment said, "With this line, tell a story:
I'm a boxer, I'm from the South Side of town..."
And I'm the toughest motherfucker around!
And I know my strategy - using my head as much as my muscle
Ain't no one that can bring me down
'Cause I'm the toughest motherfucker in...Sometimes there's words with more than one meaning
Don't forget to doubt and think for yourself
Or else one day when you look 'round,
You'll find no more free press in your town
