Christine

Elephant Room

{Intro}

{Hook}
Couple chasing waterfalls, that's what her momma told her.
Raegan baby with a chip on her shoulder
Daddy vacated in October with a cold shoulder.
So she grew up quick and her momma couldn't control her.

{Verse}
Now Christine's sixteen with big dreams of the movie screen between running away from small town
(?) but her boyfriend steve's 23 introduced her to methamphetamines
She living that party life mardi gras moving around like a carney ride getting high, (?) in the stormy night.
now fencing from go, she's tempted and broke gettin' gettin' called home by no figure Steve-o He's also empty condescending, to no ending likes to smack around when he's drinking and than she's screaming and venting
Chris stays laid back as she's thinking

{Hook} X2
Couple chasing waterfalls, that's what her momma told her.
Raegan baby with a chip on her shoulder
Daddy vacated in October with a cold shoulder.
So she grew up quick and her momma couldn't control her.

{Verse}
Never saw the Hollywood sign, but she has a postcard that she keeps in her car that wrote her friends to see with her vacate in 1994 flicks her cigarette and opens the door.
Hopes to get another hit, this is the last time she swear she's done with the shit, time to quit, enough is enough, done with it And did I forget to mention, Christine's getting a baby bump she's pregnant with Nick's feelings about the situation, she lets steve in on the information and to her surprise he seems fascinated, kissing her on her belly screaming "now thats my baby!"
but nine months later he starts acting shady, the baby girl cries a lot and drives him crazy walked out the door on October the 18th christine cried as she's thinking

{Hook} X2
Couple chasing waterfalls, that's what her momma told her.
Raegan baby with a chip on her shoulder
Daddy vacated in October with a cold shoulder.
So she grew up quick and her momma couldn't control her.
