Chaser

Nick Alligood

I like my whiskey
No rocks keep it neat
It don't need a thing
I set my glass down
Order up another round
Nothin in between
I kinda like the sting
It don't bother me

I can't handle her
I can't handle that girl
Cause one sip has got me feeling it
Yeah she's coming on
Coming on so strong
Like a double shot of what I want
A sweet kiss, start smooth, gone soon, then it burns
It makes me want a chaser

I tried to cold quit
That girls a habit
that I can't seem to break
And its a sweet lie that says shes all mine
But I sure like the taste
I oughta let her go
Cause by now I should know

I can't handle her
I can't handle that girl
Cause one sip has got me feeling it
Yeah she's coming on
Coming on so strong
Like a double shot of what I want
A sweet kiss, start smooth, gone soon, then it burns
It makes me want a chaser

(I can't handle her)
I can't handle that girl

She's coming on
Coming on so strong

Like a double shot of what I want
(And it burns)
And it burns
It makes me want a chaser
makes me want a chaser
Makes me want a chaser
