

Scars That Save

Kids In the Way

Over and over your blood covers me
How many times will it take me to see
I am so dangerous, I am so irresponsible
Here I am, broken again, but then you show me
You're wearing the scars that save
How can you see me, as something so lovely
Cause it's killing me that you took the blame
Over and over it falls back to me
My knees hit the floor and it's easy to see
I am so arrogant, I feel so unforgivable
This is my same old song
The one where I do it all wrong
And I will try
(Fight)
With all that I am
To get it right in the end
