

Rolling Home

Rednex

Hmm, hmm, hmm, hmm Light years to be found, gaze out of my window
Want to feel what it is like to belong
Lead us right through the night
Help us find a place to call home We are rolling home, we're rolling home
No more hearts to break, no more to roam
There's no one waiting, there's no one to say goodbye
So guided by a wanderin' star, we're rolling home There's a silver line over the horizon
And it fades the dreams we've lost, long time ago
You are near, there's no fear
Lost but not alone, going home We are rolling home, we're rolling home
No more hearts to break, no more to roam
There's no one waiting, there's no one to say goodbye
(Say goodbye)
So guided by a wanderin' star, we're rolling home
(Say goodbye) So guided by a wanderin' star, we're rolling home
