Divine Intervention

Matthew Sweet

I don't know where I'm gonna live
I don't know if I'll find a place
I'd have to think about it some
That I do not wish to face
I guess I'm counting on His Divine InterventionI cannot understand my God
I don't know why it gets to me
One day my life is filled with joy
And then we find we disagree
All depending on His Divine InterventionWe're all counting on His DivineDoes He love us, does He love us?
Does He love us, does He love us?
Does He love us?I look around and all I see is destruction
We're all counting on his Divine InterventionWhen He comes, the sunshine
When He comes, the sunshine
Sunshine, the sunshine
(Here it comes)Divine Intervention
Divine Intervention

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/