Angel

Lovelife

You keep me awake
I should have seen it coming, but I didn't try
Another mistake
I should have seen it coming, now I wanna dieWhere the heart meets head it breaks in two
Now I waste my time waiting for you
I'm blinded again
I couldn't see it coming, now we're on our own
Another mistake
I couldn't see it coming, now we're all aloneWhere the heart meets head it breaks in three
Now you waste your time waiting for me
I'm laying here, like a fallen soldier
Until I fade away
Until I fade awayAngel I wish I could help you
But you're just too far away
You burnt the bridge and now I can't reach you
Now I can't reach youAngel I wish I could help you
But you're just too far away
You burnt the bridge and now I can't reach you
Now I can't reach youI'm laying here, like a fallen soldier
Until I fade away
Until I fade away
When the sun goes down
And you the breathe the cold air
There are no more words
There's nothing left to sayAngel I wish I could help you
But you're just too far away
You burnt the bridge and now I can't reach you
Now I can't reach you
