Out Of My Mind

Nikki Lane

i didn't think it could happen again but love just fell out of the blue and it keeps on knocking we can't let it in fallin in love like a fool i know you can't love me now not today
but all of my thoughts are of you so i hope in time now we might find a way
cause lord knows how time can be cruel crazy for living
crazy it true
crazy out of my mind
my minds all messed up over you baby i'm sorry
i must make amends
for messing around with you we all heard the story and we know how it ends lord how i wish it weren't true
crazy for living
crazy its true
darling i need you to tell me to stay
say that you can't let me go darling i want you
but theres just no way
so i'll go crazy for living
crazy its true
crazy out of my mind
my minds all messed up over you
