I Remember

Pulley

Lost again, I try to find myself
Direction found unknown
Where else can I go
Sit me down and say to meTell it like it is Desperation eats at me
I feel I need a change
Promises Ive madeSo helpless and innocent
Hard to try and figure out just what it is I say
Still falling back behind again
Will I always chase you?Whats in it if I do?
My ideas that you sold me
Dont need to understand
What it is I amOr who it is I am anymore
Helpless and innocent, so hard to try and figure out
Just what it is I wanna say to you
Please help me understandI reach my hands for someone there
Start the circle of where Ive been Remember where Ive been
The walls that protected have all fallen downAnd I dont know how much more I can take
I know their faces and I know there names
Been to the places and I remember
