

A Voice for Peace

Dan Fogelberg

You know that everybody has a voice
And how they use it is their own free choice
In your glory I will not rejoice
If you choose the ways of war
If you choose the ways of warAshes to ashes and dust to dust
My country 'tis of thee, in God we trust
But how much longer will he shelter us
While we choose the ways of war
While the winds of war rage onLet mine "oh let my small voice" be a voice for peace
Oh let mine "oh let my small voice" be a voice for peace
Oh let mine "oh let my small voice" be a voice for peace
Let it start here with me, oh let mine be a voice for peaceThe good book tells us thou shalt not kill
The truth came shining and it's shining still
But how much blood upon this earth must spill
Before we lay our weapons down
Let us lay our weapons downLet mine "oh let my small voice" be a voice for peace
Oh let mine "oh let my small voice" be a voice for peace
Oh let mine "oh let my small voice" be a voice for peace
Let it start here with me, oh let mine be a voice for peaceAnd in the face of the beast, oh let mine be a voice
Until the breaths in me cease, oh let mine be a voice for peaceLet mine "oh let my small voice" be a voice for peace
Oh let mine "oh let my small voice" be a voice for peace
Oh let mine "oh let my small voice" be a voice for peace
Let it start here with me, oh let mine be a voice for peaceRaise your voice up, raise your voice up
Raise your voice up and sing for the promise
