

Feeling

The Jelly Jam

Once on a ride
I was left in the forest
And the leaves and the wind
Seemed to carry me homeBut when I arrived
It was long after morning
And the heat of the day
Left me standing aloneVoices calling, I go falling in
Someone said, "Let's go" but it begins
And it seems like I've been here beforeLeave me my red cherry wine
And I know I'll be doing just fine
'Cause I'm keeping this
Deep heart of mine from feelingLong after dark
I was left out there wandering
And I came across things
I would never have seenAnd once in a while
I'd imagine a ray of light
And I'd think to myself
I might just make it out of this thingVoices calling, I go falling in
Someone said, "Let's go" but it begins
And it seems like I've been here beforeLeave me my red cherry wine
And I know I'll be doing just fine
'Cause I'm keeping this
Deep heart of mine from feelingFeeling
Feeling
And when I awoke
It was long after morning
And it seemed like a dream
But I knew it was real'Cause the glass had been broken
At the sound of a warning
And the truth became known
In the things I had tried to conceal, yeahVoices calling, I go falling in Someone said, "Let's go" but it begins
And it seems like I've been here beforeLeave me my red cherry wine
And I know I'll be doing just fine
'Cause I'm leaving my red cherry wine
'Cause I know I'll be alright in timeYeah, give me my red cherry wine
'Cause I know I'll be doing just fine
And I'm feeling, feeling, feeling, feeling

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>