

The Ghost of You

Michael Learns to Rock

Summer's ended and without a trace
Time goes by while you remain
Funny how I thought I walked on through
With my heart in one Why do I still cry for you
Dying to get close to you
Oh baby why do I still fear to face
The ghost of you How I tried to get you off my mind
But you return all the time
I believed I could just let you go
Like the fool I am Baby why do I still cry for you
Dying to get close to you
Oh baby why do I still fear to face
The ghost of you I've been trying to release you
To get my feet back on the ground
Still I need my hope to hold on to
Even if I know I should back away
It's just a part of me that I can't erase, hey Baby why do I still cry for you
Dying to get close to you
Oh baby why do I still fear to face
The ghost of you (Baby, baby why)
Anyway I try I'm still reminded
(The ghost of you)
Anywhere I go I keep colliding with
(The ghost of you)
I've given up I just can't fight it
(The ghost of you)
Of you Every time I look away I see
The ghost of you
