

So Long

Melody Gardot

Don't wait home for me darling
I'm not coming home
Draw the blinds and set the alarm,
'cause I'm not coming home
In the morning you will rise
With sadness in your eyes
'cause I'll be gone
I'm moving on
Goodbye, so long
Every flower has faded to dust
I'm not coming home
Tears may fall, your lashes may rust
But I'm not coming home
Forever is on my mind
And I have just got to find
A place I belong
One I belong
Goodbye, so long
Every power is drawn to the close of another
I'm not coming home
Wave goodbye, so everyone knows
I'm not coming home
Goodbye, so long
