Tell Me How You Want It

Damn Yankees

Hey yeahLook out, I'm a man with a mission
Tell you what I wanna do
We've gotta move, we don't need no permission
Just need me and youAnd you ought to know
If there's a way, I will come crashing through your door
I'll take you higher than you've ever been before
So come on won't youTell me how you want it
Tell me what you want me to do
Someday I'm gonna be a rich man
Baby, you got nothing to loseNow I know you've got a heart like a lion
How much can you take?
You and me gotta run like the river
This dam's about to breakRolling like thunder from above I'll take you there
Hey yeah
It's now or never
Gotta get up while we can, you gottaTell me how you want it
Tell me what you want me to do
Someday I'm gonna be a rich man
Baby, you got nothing to loseTell me how you want it
Tell me what you want me to do
Someday I'm gonna win you over
You got nothing to loseGoing nowhere, ain't no pleasure
It's pain when you're living a lie
Don't make it over, don't talk it over
Just jump in my car, jump in my car and we'll
Run, run, run, like there's no tomorrow
Run, run, run, run
Ooh, yeah
YeahRolling like thunder from above I'll take you there
I'll take you higher than you've ever been before
Now come on, yeah
You've got toTell me how you want it
Tell me what you want me to do
Someday I'm gonna be a rich man
Baby you got nothing to loseTell me how you want it
Tell me what you want me to do
Someday I'm gonna win you over
You got nothing to loseTell me how you want it
Tell me how you want it

Tell me how you want it
Tell me how you want it
