I Walk Alone

Iced Earth

I am your inner fear, your kind refuse to hear
I am the light, I am the way
But the fallacies of man are easy to embraceAnd I in purest form I always weather every storm
And though you fail to see
The truth is the path that leads to meMankind's dishonesty lays them to waste
(I will divide)
I am the truth and I walk aloneHuman hypocrisy exacting their fate
(I will devour)
I am the truth and I walk aloneThe flaws in your design are breeding fear
Inside your mind and lies lead to disgrace
A failure to reform the failed human raceMankind's dishonesty lays them to waste
(I will divide)
I am the truth and I walk aloneHuman hypocrisy exacting their fate
(I will devour)
I am the truth and I walk aloneMankind's dishonesty lays them to waste
(I will divide)
I am the truth and I walk aloneHuman hypocrisy exacting their fate
(I will devour)
I am the truth and I walk alone
