

Freedom Song

Mandisa

Praise to the Lord, my chains are gone
Can't help but sing our freedom song
Praise to the Lord, my chains are gone
Can't help but sing our freedom

I am a child from a broken home
Where true love was torn apart
But then I met the heavenly Father
Who made a home inside my heart

I am a man with the chains of addiction
Dragging me down for way too long
But I came face to face with redemption
And now those chains are gone

Can anybody hear me?
Does anybody know what I'm talking about?
When you've been delivered like that
You've got to shout it out

Lift your hands up in the air
Shout hallelujah
Lift your hands up in the air
I have been set free

Lift your hands up in the air
Shout hallelujah
Lift your hands up in the air
I have been set free

I am a sixteen year old daughter
Lost in the mirror, no self-esteem
But God made me in His image
And that makes me a beauty queen

I am a wife and the mother of three
Trading my dreams for a busy life
Searching for my lost identity
And I'm happy to announce that I found it in Christ

Can anybody hear me?
Does anybody know what I'm talking about?
When you've been delivered like that
You've got to shout it out

Lift your hands up in the air
Shout hallelujah
Lift your hands up in the air
I have been set free

Lift your hands up in the air
Shout hallelujah
Lift your hands up in the air
I have been set free

Praise to the Lord, my chains are gone
Can't help but sing our freedom song
Praise to the Lord, my chains are gone
Can't help but sing our freedom song

Lift your hands up in the air
Shout hallelujah
Lift your hands up in the air
I have been set free

Lift your hands up in the air
Shout hallelujah
Lift your hands up in the air
I have been, I have been set free

Throw your hands up in the air
And shout hallelujah, hallelujah
I have been set free
Throw your hands up in the air
And shout hallelujah, hallelujah
I have been set free
