

Look At You Now

Willowtree

Look at you now
Look at you nowLook at you now
Look at you now
Look at you now
Look at you nowRight from the start, you tried to hurt me
But look at you now, behaving like a fool
A long time ago, you treated me so meanLook at you now
Look at you now
Look at you now
Look at you nowYou threw me away, like litter in the gutter
I had to pick my self up, find something betterI looked so hard, I'm looking hard now
Looking at your headDon't talk about birthdays, that don't mean a thing to me
Don't throw it in my face, it's too sweet to stingI kept on looking hard
I keep on looking hard
I kept on looking hard
I keep on looking at your head
Looking at your head
Looking at your head
Looking at your head
Head, head, head, head
Look at you now
