Rain

Lessdmv - Rain

I'm trying to draw your smile with painless love, my dear and taking your breath as mine your lovely eyes started to dream I scream throught the gardens from an empty land
the shadows will write poetry about my last breath
So I'm just waiting for the

Rain please take away
her tears and swear
to bring [her] back her light oh rain

Drinking my blood as wine the devil smiled to me Laughing from time to time an angel started to bleed
I scream throught the gardens
from an empty land
about my last breath
So I'm just waiting for the

So Rain just hear my prays our last embrace is what I wanna feel
