

Now

SHeDAISY

If I could be thirteen again
To live with no regret
When I could still be president
And I could feel my dad As he's holding me in his arms
Not in my dreams
And I could not wait to be
Something at twenty-three But now I've got the sun
To clear away the clouds
So why look back
When there's a stunning
Blazing, so amazing now Now, now, now, now, now, now From here love looks so effortless
The simple used to do
Grass never feels as green, I guess
Underneath our shoes Let's you and me and CNN
Flip the switch, go back again
I wonder who we'd see
Reflecting from our TV Now we've got the sun
To clear away the clouds
So why look back
When there's a stunning
Blazing, so amazing now Now, now, now, now, now, now, now
Right now, right now, right now, yeah, ooh The reconstructing you can do
With scissors and a little glue
And leave what's left to decorate the ground Rediscovering your bliss
Is the sweetest part of this
(This)
Is all we need Right now we've got the sun
To clear away the clouds
So why look back
Why look back, why look back Right now we've got the sun
To clear away the clouds
So why look back
When there's a stunning
Blazing, so amazing Now we've got the sun
To clear away the clouds
So why look back
When there's a so amazing now
Now, now, now, now now, now Right now, now, now, now
Now, now, now, right now, right now

Right now, right now, right now, right now
