

The Soldier

Lacey Sturm

You draw your line in the sand
So I'm crossing over again
You brag that you're a grenade
So I pull your pin and I wait

The time will come
Your power is gone
Yeah, I might die in a day
But I'm gonna die anyway

I'm gonna stand my ground
Even if they back down
'Cause I don't care what you say anymore
So what, you raise your voice
I'm screaming back my choice
'Cause I sure ain't scared of you anymore

What's a life without a cause
What's the point of drawing straws
They say that I am a fool
But I'll do what I have to do

The time will come
This war is won
Yeah I might die in a day
But I'm gonna die anyway

I'm gonna stand my ground
Even if they back down
'Cause I don't care what you say anymore
So what, you raise your voice
I'm screaming back my choice
'Cause I sure ain't scared of you anymore

I've seen a dying man
Pleading for one more chance
Only to fade to black
And that's why I'm going back

I'm gonna stand my ground

Even if they back down
'Cause I donâ€™t care what you say anymore
So what, you raise your voice
I'm screaming back my choice
'Cause I sure ainâ€™t scared of you anymore
No I'm not scared of you anymore
