Return to the Closet

Refused

The game is over, damage is done
Fuck you for playing along
Break through the surface
Only to suffocateBeating it into me
Beating it into me
Burn witches as found
But not this timeCulture acquires love design
Culture acquires love design
This people, culture acquires love design
This cultureLeft naked with nothing but ourselves
And contempt for what we're not supposed to be
Not supposed to feel, not supposed to seeI will embrace you
I will embrace you
We're all beautiful
We're all beautifulCulture acquires love design
Culture acquires love design
This people, culture acquires love design
CultureWe all return
Confrontation cuts
In the closet
Can't get upWe all return
We all return
We all returnAnother definition
To keep control
With assorted names
We know where to belongAnother definition
To keep control
With assorted names
We know where to belong
