

Sigillum Diaboli (live)

Him

Sigillum Diaboli

I can't see as I'm facing your pitiful lies
Don't have the strength to carry your heavy load of life
I'm your Christ and I want you
I just woke up for hearse and you know it as well as I doOh
I can't see through your eyes, bring your tears on me
I will lift the burden from your shoulders just to have killing
I'm your Christ and I want you
I just woke up for hearse and you know it as well as I doOh as well as I do
Oh as well as I do
Just as well as I do
Oh as well as I do
Oh as well as I doSo I'm your Christ to and I want you
I just woke up for hearse and you know it as well as I do
So I'm your Christ and I want you
I just woke up for hearse and you know it as well as I doOh, so you've come from above
And you say you want it all
And I cut myself for your love
I'm killing myself for you, yes youI can't see as I'm facing your pityful lies
Don't have the strength to carry your heavy load of life
I'm your Christ and I want you
I just woke up for hearse and you know it as well as I do
I'm your Christ and I want you
I just woke up for hearse and you know it as well as I doYes you do
Yes you do, my Darling
Yes you do, oh
Yes you do, oh my Love
So
