

Get out, Honey

One Missed May

Eight second chances are not enough.
You brought me sorrow,
when i brought my love to you.
You didn't see me through.
You taught me things that I didn't know,
but how much lie was in this show?
Was it your show? Don't wanna know
Don't wanna see
I'm not gonna bear this anymore Chorus:
Will I see your true face
When you lose your own game
When you need me near you
But I won't be there anymore
Will I see your true face
When we have a meeting
And you'll see, my heart is beating.
That my heart is still beating
Without you My nerves are not steel
As you could think
Oh, have you ever
Made something for me?
Remind me, please.
I could forgive you
Every mistake
But all you gave me
Was only headache
I want to awake Chorus:
Will I see your true face
When you lose your own game
When you need me near you
But I won't be there anymore
Will I see your true face
When we have a meeting
And you'll see, my heart is beating.
That my heart is still beating
Without you Will I see your true face
When you lose your own game... (X2)
