Oceans

Johan

Ive been hanging on so long,
Ive been living on my own,
Waiting for you.Ive been helpless since youre gone,
Getting tired of being alone,
Keep thinking of you.I cannot sleep - you never call,
I cant believe how deep Ive fallen
Into youSo if youre lonely,
Then I will swim the ocean,
Pull me under water,
Find me crawling on the ocean floor,
If you need me,
Then I will cross the ocean,
Walk upon the water,
Tides will bring to the ocean shore,
If you want me,
Why dont you give a sign?You live in a different world,
And all the seas have parted you from me.
Getting close but I cant reach you,
Theres a giant gap between us,
Cant you see?I cant take it anymore,
I never make it to your door,
I might drown.But if youre lonely,
Then I will swim the ocean,
Pull me under water,
Find me crawling on the ocean floor.
If you need me,
Then I will cross the ocean,
Walk upon the water,
Tides will bring to the ocean shore.
If you want me
Do you want me?I believe in time,
I believe in time,
Healing wounds of sorrow from the past,
Leaves us cold.
I believe youre mine,
I believe Im fine,
Then again Im lost without you now.
I gotta get to you somehow,
Before I drown.I cant take it anymore,

I never make it to your door,
I might drown.And if youre lonely,
Then I will swim the ocean,
Pull me under water,
Find me crawling on the ocean floor.
If you need me,
Then I will cross the ocean,
Walk upon the water,
Tides will bring to the ocean shore.
If you want me,
Do you want me?
